CIA DIRECTOR

THE SOVIET DOMESTIC SERVICE BRIEFLY NOTES THAT THE U.S.

GOVERNMENT WAS "FORCED" TO RETIRE THE "FINALLY PLAYED-OUT"

CIA DIRECTOR ALLEN DULLES, REPLACING HIM WITH "THE BIG INDUSTRIALIST"

AND FORMER ARC CHAIRMAN, JOHN MCCONE. THE REPLACEMENT IS WIDELY

REPORTED BY SATELLITE RADIOS, SOME OF WHICH ATTRIBUTE DULLES'

RETIREMENT TO HIS "FAILURES" IN CUBA AND LAGS. THE EAST GERMAN NEWS

SERVICE OBSERVES THAT WHEN WITH THE AFC MCCONE WAS "THE MOST

ZEALOUS CHAMPION OF THE RESUMPTION OF NUCLEAR WEAPON TESTS."

EAST BERLIN RADIO CONCLUDES THAT KENNEDY WANTS TO MAINTAIN HIS

FOREIGN POLICY LIME WHILE BRANDING DULLES AS A SCAPEGOAT FOR PAST

REVERSES.
